

Sixty One

Aaron Strumpel :: bpm 150 :: Isaiah 61 :: Written for the Oak Project in Chattanooga, TN
From the album BRIGHT STAR

Those who cry their tears unheard
Will wash away the ash

Those who mourn their prayers unheard
Will wear their beauty well

You're drenched in gladness
And clothed in praise
Your arms hold a strength hard won
Your roots are planted deep

You're built on strength
That fire can't destroy
Your treasure is found
In the ones that you love
Your homes are filled with joy
