

IIc. Going Fast

Vespers I & II - Aaron Strumpel

When my dust meets cold
And my blood meets stone
I'll know what it is to be laid low
I'll know what it is to wake up

I'll be going fast, I'll be running strong
I'll be done at last, I'll be going home

When my bones meet stillness
And my breath is gone
I'll know what it is to be laid low
I'll know what it is to wake up

Death, you can come for me
You've been trying for all my life
God, you can have me
I am yours and you are mine
Death, you can come for me
You might have me for a day
God, you can take me
I am yours, I'm on my way
