

Ib. Born Again

Vespers I & II - Aaron Strumpel

It's your choice now, where ya gonna go now
Who ya gonna see now, now that you're free oh

It's your time now, whatcha gonna do now
Who ya gonna be now, now that you're free oh

I will lay down my head, upon this golden ground
I will wait all night long, for the earth to take my crown

I will sink deeper still, into this indigo sea
I will wait all night long, for the waters to make me free

I'm gonna live my second life in a warm and sunny place
I'm gonna let you shine on down gonna let you warm my face
I'm gonna be born again, I'm gonna be born again

I'm gonna take my days and spend them on my family
I'm gonna take my hands and build now, build a history
I'm gonna be born again, I'm gonna be born again
