

SPARK MY HEART

Words and Music by Aaron Strumpel :: From the album BRIGHT STAR :: Capo 2

V1 Thru dangers toils and snares I run, to you my God oh brilliant Son
When all seems lost prone to dismay, you hold me fast you still my sway
Tho enemies surround me now, they can not stop, they know not how
The light, the warmth, of your embrace, you spark my heart you fuel my race

CH1 You spark my heart you fuel my race
You spark my heart you fuel my race

V2 So treachery can try it's best, destruction, darkness and the rest
So strong I am because I stand, on you my God, the great I Am
Nor height nor depth shall worry me, nor fire, winds, or raging seas
Will sway me from my love for you, my God my friend my savior true

CH2 My God my friend my savior true
My God my friend my savior true

BR You are my first love, none like you, no one
You have my whole heart, you are my only one
