

this can't last
it's a baritone song in open tuning... bpm 145

chains hold my hands i almost think they're friends but my heart still can feel time marches in pretending to make me old

worries rule my mind i almost think they're right

tremors rack my bones i think i might be broken

world goes round sun will rise
in your arms i'll be found
