

Never Finished

Aaron Strumpel :: bpm 120 :: Philippians 1:6 :: From the album BIRDS

Your work is never finished in my heart
I don't know where to start
Your love's so startlingly strong

Your work is never finished in my mind
I wouldn't know where to find
A love so blindingly bright

There's this thing in my chest
I'll try to say it best
It's a burning that just started
I think it's gonna spread
It's you, it's you

There's a pounding in my heart
It's gonna leave a mark
It's a knocking on my door
The signal of a start
It's you, it's you
