

IVa. Bitter Dose

Vespers III & IV - Aaron Strumpel

C-D-Em

It's a hard way to end
A year and a half
With a muddled mind
With a muddied hand
It's a hard way to end
It's a bitter dose to take
From another hand
It's in my veins
I fought in vain
It's a bitter dose to take

C-D-Em

So I set my eyes like stone
And I lift up my chin
And I pick up all my bones
And breathe life in again
And I build my house on stone
And I make straight my frame
I will not be knocked down
When the winds come again

G-D/F#-C-D/F#

And I hope for hope
And I hope for joy
And I yearn to love
Like I yearn to be loved
